

PRIVATE DINING AND SPECIAL OCCASIONS

WELCOME TO THE ENGINEER

Dating back to the 1800s, The Engineer gets its name from one of Britain's most famous civil engineers, Isambard Kingdom Brunel. Instrumental in the design and construction of the Great Western Railway and the SS Great Britain, Brunel's offices are said to have been upstairs in The Engineer, and his silhouette is still featured on the pub's swing sign to this day.

Located just moments away from Regent's Canal and Camden Lock, nestled amidst leafy streets and an array of independent shops, The Engineer offers a perfect setting for any occasion. Whether it's a lunch time bite, unwinding with colleagues after work, organising a corporate gathering, or celebrating a milestone with loved ones, we can cater to all needs.
